31th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Let God Be God!

They called him "The Lip of Louisville," a heavyweight boxer who followed his gold medal victory in the 1960 Rome Olympics with a professional career that quickly led to two things: amazing success and widespread animosity. There was no doubting his ability, but his brash personality and in-your-face arrogance led many to dislike him. His boasting eventually took the form of a simple anthem: "I am the greatest!"

Few genuine fans of the sport of boxing would challenge his claim of greatness, although many still remember and resent the boasting and bluster he continued to spew for a good part of his career. But time has a way of mellowing all of us, and Muhammad Ali was no exception. There's a story told of a traveler curious about the small crowd surrounding someone at Metro Airport in Detroit. The traveler had enough time to investigate and recognized "The Champ," as Ali became known later in his life, as the center of all the attention. Afflicted by Parkinson's disease that had robbed him of his gift of gab, he was wordlessly, even humbly, handing out leaflets. The traveler took one and read a message that began with: "God is the greatest."

That's the simple message of today's first reading from the prophet Malachi: A great king am I, says the Lord. There's a dire warning to the priests: Give glory to my name... [or] your blessing I will make a curse. It seems it is from this very perspective that Jesus speaks out so aggressively in our Gospel, as he confronts the hypocrisy of the Pharisees. How interesting that he doesn't dismiss them or question their authority, but warns all of us to go beyond words of faith and to act on what we profess.

Whenever Jesus says I am in the Gospels – and he does it a number of times, especially in John – he is making a clear reference to the First Commandment of the Ten, and to his own divinity. Remember that First Commandment? I am the Lord your God. You shall have no strange gods before me. It's very easy to dismiss it as hopelessly out of step with the modern world.

We might say there's not a lot of idol worship going on in our culture, at least worship of carved images of strange deities. But we do have our idols – power, wealth, fame, pleasure, independence. The most insidious and widely embraced idol, though, is the image we see when we look in a mirror. There is something within us that in subtle ways struggles mightily with the notion of allowing God to be God: it's that determined sense that "nobody is going to tell me what to do."

So how do we let God be God; let God be the greatest? One way is through prayer, when we pray the Lord's Prayer and say "thy will be done." Repeatedly returning to a posture of humbly seeking and following the will of God, no matter how challenging, no matter how contrary to our own will, is the heart and soul of humbling ourselves as Jesus calls us to. It allows God to be God. And God is the greatest!

National Vocation Awareness Week | November 5 – 11

Did you know that in our country, compared to 50 years ago, there are 20,000 fewer priests and 130,000 fewer religious sisters? At the same time, the Catholic population has continued to grow steadily. Many factors have contributed to the decline: growing secularism, a lengthened period of adolescence, attitudes about celibacy, etc. During Vocation Awareness week, please pray that young people in today's society will hear and respond to God's call. All do your part to encourage them to consider the priesthood and religious life.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults! Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

2017 Bishop's Annual Appeal

It is important that when you give to any charitable organization, you are confident that the funds are used wisely. Be assured that your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal supports four causes: our Catholic Charities agencies, seminarian education, our inner-city area elementary schools and our priests' retirement residence.

In addition, 50% of all funds received over a parish's goal is returned to the parish directly for its own needs. Please know that Appeal funds are used for no other purpose and serve only those who live in Morris, Passaic and Sussex counties. Please make a pledge to the Bishop's Annual Appeal today. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2017appeal.org. Thank you.

Saint of the Week

November 11 – St. Martin of Tours

St. Martin was born in the fourth century in what is today known as Hungary. He was the first universally popular saint in Europe, and more churches in Europe are dedicated to him than to any other saint.

Martin was born a pagan and served in the Roman army in Gaul. While he was a soldier on duty he had an experience for which he became widely known and which is often depicted in paintings. He came across a beggar, shivering in the cold. Martin immediately took off his cloak, cut it in two, and gave half to the beggar. That night Jesus appeared to him in a dream, wearing the half he had given to the beggar, and saying, "Martin, yet a catechumen, has covered me with his cloak."

When discharged from the army, Martin was ordained, converted his parents, and went to live as a hermit on an island. Eventually he returned to France and founded the first monastery in the West. In 371 the people of Tours demanded that Martin be named their bishop. He established parishes throughout his diocese, traveling to visit them by means of donkey, on foot, or by boat. He endeared himself to all through his simplicity and kindness. He begged for the lives of those condemned to death, gave generously to the poor, and cured the sick with healing powers.

Martin died on November 8, 397. A magnificent basilica was built over his grave in Tours. People from all over Europe came to visit his grave. He is the patron saint of the poor, soldiers, and conscientious objectors.

St. Martin, give us the vision to see that what we do for others we truly do for you.

Be assured that your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal supports four causes: our Catholic Charities agencies, seminarian education, our inner-city area elementary schools and our priests' retirement residence.

In addition, 50% of all funds received over a parish's goal is returned to the parish directly for its own needs. Please know that Appeal funds are used for no other purpose and serve only those who live in Morris, Passaic and Sussex counties. Please make a pledge to the Bishop's Annual Appeal today. For your convenience, you can make an online gift or pledge at www.2017appeal.org. Thank you.

Saint of the Week

November 11 – St. Martin of Tours

St. Martin was born in the fourth century in what is today known as Hungary. He was the first universally popular saint in Europe, and more churches in Europe are dedicated to him than to any other saint.

Martin was born a pagan and served in the Roman army in Gaul. While he was a soldier on duty he had an experience for which he became widely known and which is often depicted in paintings. He came across a beggar, shivering in the cold. Martin immediately took off his cloak, cut it in two, and gave half to the beggar. That night Jesus appeared to him in a dream, wearing the half he had given to the beggar, and saying, "Martin, yet a catechumen, has covered me with his cloak."

When discharged from the army, Martin was ordained, converted his parents, and went to live as a hermit on an island. Eventually he returned to France and founded the first monastery in the West. In 371 the people of Tours demanded that Martin be named their bishop. He established parishes throughout his diocese, traveling to visit them by means of donkey, on foot, or by boat. He endeared himself to all through his simplicity and kindness. He begged for the lives of those condemned to death, gave generously to the poor, and cured the sick with healing powers.

Martin died on November 8, 397. A magnificent basilica was built over his grave in Tours. People from all over Europe came to visit his grave. He is the patron saint of the poor, soldiers, and conscientious objectors.

St. Martin, give us the vision to see that what we do for others we truly do for you.
