Feast of Christ the King

We serve our king by serving each other.

Today's Solemnity always takes place on the last Sunday in Ordinary Time before the beginning of Advent and the start of a new liturgical year. In Advent, we prepare for the two comings of Christ – as a baby in Bethlehem, and his return as a king in glory. This celebration of Jesus' kingship prepares us for both comings of the Christ.

Though this feast exalts the royal and divine attributes of the Christ, Ezekiel prophesies the coming of a Messiah who will live humbly as a shepherd, focusing his efforts on seeking out the lost, the straying, the injured and sick: I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. This shepherd promises a safe ground for pasture, and rest for the weary of his flock. Above all, Ezekiel suggests the personal concern and care the Lord will show for each of his lambs: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. This reading is very much in Jesus' mind centuries later when he evokes the same image in the Gospel – that of the shepherd separating the sheep from the goats.

At this point in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus is soon to be led out to the cross. Before he goes, he draws our attention to his return in glory and the final judgment. With so little time left in his life, Jesus calls upon his disciples to use whatever time has been left to them, and to us, wisely and well – not out of self-interest, but rather to look after the needs of the least among us, knowing that whatsoever we do for one of these little ones, we do for him. We serve our king by serving each other.

Jesus is a king like no other. The only crown our king ever wore was made of thorns and brambles. As we conclude the season of Ordinary Time and move into Advent, let each of us make an accounting of our stewardship before the coming of our king. Have we been loyal subjects? In our prayers and daily living, do we treat Christ as a sovereign over us or as a servant who exists only to do our will? We pray with the coming of Advent that Jesus will lead us and guide us in the ways of service, helping us to show our love for God by how we love and serve one another, especially the least among us.

Saint of the Week

November 26 | St. John Berchmans

On March 13, 1599 John Berchmans was born in Belgium, the eldest of five children of a shoemaker and his wife. John wanted to become a priest from an early age, and worked as a servant in order to be able to pursue his studies.

In 1615 the Jesuits opened a college in Malines, and John was among the first to enter. He was a leader among his peers, energetic, pleasant, and an avid student. The following year he entered the Jesuit order and developed a fervent spirituality.

John was determined that a person could become holy through ordinary things. He had an endearing personality, and practiced kindness and cheerfulness toward everyone. In 1618 he was sent to Rome to study philosophy. His hope was that after his ordination he would be allowed to become a chaplain in the army and even to be martyred on the battlefield. He never achieved his dream.

In the summer of 1619, John began to suffer from the intense Roman heat. Doctors could not determine what was wrong with him, but for two years he was continually sick and grew weaker and weaker. On August 13, 1621 John died. At the time of his funeral numerous miracles occurred that were attributed to him. His body lies in the Church of St. Ignatius in Rome. He was canonized in 1888, and is the patron saint of altar servers.

St. John Berchmans, help us to appreciate the little ways in our daily life when we can serve God and turn our thoughts to Him in prayer. Pray for us.

Giving Trees

Our parish Giving Trees will be up in the vestibule and at the side door of Church this weekend. Please take a tag and follow the directions on the sheets provided near the trees regarding wrapped or unwrapped, and the due dates. The symbol on the front of the tag tells you where the gift will be donated, and for whom. Tags should be attached to the gift when you return it under the tree. Help us to reach out in love and kindness for Christmas. As in the past, there are many people relying on your generosity to make their Christmas celebration more special. Your gift may be the only one they receive.

Morris County Correctional Facility

In conjunction with the First Presbyterian Church of New Vernon, Christ the King parishioners are asked to contribute items from the following list. They will be picked up on December 11. Due to security clearance, we must stick to the guidelines for the items that are permitted.

- Toothpaste and toothbrushes
- Deodorant
- Shampoo (medium or large, no over-size bottles)
- White crew socks for men and women, all sizes.
- White briefs for women
- White briefs for men.

Please do not wrap these items. They can be placed in the wrapped boxes in the back of Church. The items will be distributed to the prisoners in gift bags for Christmas.

Family Promise

Family Promise of Morris County is a non-sectarian, not-for-profit organization dedicated to ending the crisis of homelessness faced by Morris County families by partnering with other public and private agencies, religious congregations and community volunteers to provide shelter, case management and mentoring services leading to self-sufficiency. As a support congregation, Christ the King is assigned to provide and serve dinner and breakfast on the dates below. Would you like to help?

Tuesday, December 12 – dinner

Friday, December 15 – overnight stay

Saturday, December 16 – breakfast & visitation
