Pentecost Sunday

We all are called to put to use the gifts we have been given by God in order to build up the Church – the body of Christ.

There once was an elderly woman who had four grown sons. The woman lost her home to fire, so the sons thought it would be good to build their mother a new home. They encountered some trouble. The first son was a carpenter, but he didn't know anything about plumbing, masonry or electrical work. So he thought there was no way he could build his mother a home. Each of his brothers – an electrician, a plumber and a bricklayer – had similar thoughts. They didn't know anything about the other building trades, so thinking only as individuals, they each decided there was no way any of them could build a new home for their mother. So the house never got built.

Maybe our life as a Church is sometimes like that story of the mother and her sons. How often do we think that the Church could not possibly need or make use of our God-given talents? Sometimes, we might catch ourselves thinking that we can't lead a song or a prayer service or a parish meeting. Maybe we think we could never stand before a group of people and put a meaningful sentence together. Perhaps we think that the Church simply doesn't need us because we can't do anything spectacular. Maybe we feel we don't have any special talents to share with anyone, so why bother?

Let us consider for a moment the diversity of gifts that are necessary to bring to life a parish like our own. Our parish life is not just about those whose talents we see and hear at Mass each Sunday. It is also about those whose talents are used "behind the scenes" so to speak – the folks who clean the church each week or the person whose focus in prayer encourages others to do the same. The volunteers who work in our religious formation programs by assembling a mailing, assisting with record keeping, preparing materials for each session – all contribute immeasurably. Preparing a dish to be shared at a funeral luncheon can bring comfort and healing, as can an open listening ear and a compassionate heart.

God continues to pour out the Holy Spirit to touch the lives of each of us. This feast of Pentecost is all about being able to see and to sense how God has touched each of us with gifts that are necessary for the life of the Church. Yes, some gifts are used more visibly, but all those God-given gifts are necessary.

Pentecost is about believing that the power of the Holy Spirit has been poured out upon each of us. Those gifts can be pooled and put to use humbly and selflessly. Pentecost is about building a house, together, that no one person can do alone. It is about building up the Church.

May Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Your Son ascended in great triumph to sit at your right hand.

*You sent your Spirit to watch over us, guide us and teach us to be better stewards
of your abundant gifts.*

May this Spirit of wisdom make us better stewards of our planet.

May your Spirit increase our awareness of the dignity of every human life and show us the way to be better stewards of our neighbor.

And through your Spirit, may we be inspired every day to live in accordance with the Gospel, and to give witness to our risen Lord.

*We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God forever and ever. Amen.*

Saint of the Week

May 21 | Blessed Franz Jägerstätter

Here we have the moving and courageous story of a conscientious objector who gave his life rather than violate his conscience. Franz Jägerstätter was a peasant in Austria, born in 1907. He was a devout Catholic, known in his village as an honest man and a man of principle. He was devoted to his family as well as to his faith.

In 1943 Franz was served with an induction notice to serve in the German army. Before he responded, Franz sought counsel from his bishop and parish priest, who both advised him to serve the Fatherland. Franz, however, believed in his heart that the Nazi movement was satanic and that serving in the army would constitute a mortal sin for him. So he refused to comply.

When he was in prison, Franz was continually pressured to save himself by going along with the Nazi demands, but he did not believe in prolonging his life while perhaps losing his soul. He was beheaded on August 9, 1943. When he was beatified in 2007, his widow and surviving children attended the ceremony.

Blessed Franz, pray for us to follow your example of courage when we are faced with pressures contrary to our principles.
